QUESTION 1

You transfer a project quotation with a work breakdown structure to a new project.

Which three project data sets can be created during the transfer process? (Each correct answer presents part of the solution. Choose three.)

- A. Invoice proposal
- B. Project budget
- C. Forecast
- D. Item requirements
- E. Billing rules

Correct Answer: BCD

Explanation: Transfer the Confirmed project quotation into an actual project(New or existing) and then run a wizard to create project WBS, forecasts, project budgets etc. automatically right from the quotation. Note:

* The work breakdown structure of dynamics AX 2012 is a hierarchical representation of the activities and child activities in a project and helps the project managers to do the following.

Define the overall work scope of the projects.

Each descending level of the hierarchy represents increasingly detailed information about the project work.

It helps identifying and creating milestones in the project.

It also helps managers to soft/hard commit resources to the activities/tasks.

Project managers can create WBS templates and use them any time they want to plan a new project. They can also create the WBS directly on a project.
